

THE GROOM'S GUIDE

BOY'S TOYS

TO GET A WEDDING ORGANISED NEEDS INPUT FROM MANY PEOPLE; THE GROOM'S SUPPORT TEAM HAS TO BE REMEMBERED WHEN IT COMES TO THOSE THAT SHOULD HAVE HEART-FELT RECOGNITION.

The groomsmen have offered moral support and encouragement in the lead-up and on the wedding day, so a token of thanks is the time honoured way of marking the event.

The gift is a memento that will remind friends of the whole wedding scenario from suit fittings to the buck's show, guest seating, and all the other important groomsmen's duties.

If the gift is to be worn at the wedding, the gifts would be presented at the rehearsal dinner. These gifts might include cuff links or pocket watches.

It's also appropriate to make presentations on the wedding day while the guys are gathered all together in the dressing area, or later during the reception. To make the moment personal, take each groomsman aside and give the gift individually. There's no need to make a public speech. This is a personal moment between friends.

The gift doesn't have to be 'one size fits all' gifts can be individual, personalised and unique for each person.
